The Mid-Autumn Moon Festival is celebrated by many Asian cultures for centuries. Full moon symbolizes reunion happily with family and friends. Performances will begin at 6:30pm.

Besides the performances, there will also be numerous culture displays highlighting Asian cultural arts and crafts, calligraphy, etc. Arrive as early as 5:00PM for Asian delights from local restaurants and be prepared to sample moon cakes (tradition of the festivity). Free audio-visual screening service is available from the on-site Eye-Mobile sponsored by the Lions Club.

The event is free and open to the public. Please note that there is limited on-site parking. However, there is plenty of street parking in the vicinity. Car-pooling is strongly suggested. For additional information, please call Sharon Ma at 201-262-8891 or send an email to: sharonma@msn.com.

Special Request: Please join force with Center for Food Action in New Jersey (<http://www.cfanj.org/>) to help your neighbor in need around Bergen and Passaic Counties. Suggested donations to bring to the event day include most need pantry items (such as canned food, plain rice, dried goods and paper products). Thanks!
