10. CSC Care – Performers needed!

CSC Care is putting together a performing group to perform at the libraries, senior centers & other locations during the Chinese New Year. If you or your children are interested to be part of this community project, please contact Sharon Ma (sharonma@msn.com) to sign-up. It is a great way to give back to our community, and to gain performing experience! We also need volunteers to help with the coordination. Please contact Sharon and be part of this proud project!

11. Becoming a "Due Paid" CSC member

We are the parent organization of Bergen Chinese School & Bohua Chinese School, and sponsoring Columbia Chinese School and the Chinese Summer Camp. We are a non-profit organization promotes Chinese Cultures and language to our next generations. We support many school activities and public events. Our schools are the only schools without charging mandatory membership fee for joining our schools. We rely on the "due-paying" membership and fund raising to raise fund to support our schools. Your generous support by becoming "Due Paid" members will help us set off the administration fee and event expenses. Please fill out the membership form and drop off along with checks/cash to Sharon Ma at the BCS cafeteria or send it to P.O.BOX 8122, Paramus, NJ 07652. Membership form is available on the information desk.
